Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, An exciting new era of tourism and family vacations has dawned for South Dakota's Black Hills with the development of the amazing Hart Ranch; and,

WHEREAS, Located on Upper Spring Creek Road, south of Rapid City, Hart Ranch covers 13,000 majestic acres in the heart of the Hills, an area visited every year by millions of travellers from South Dakota, across America, and around the world; and,

WHEREAS, Hart Ranch's figures fire the imagination: 436 camping sites, a 60,000 square foot enclosed riding arena, over 25 miles of biking, hiking and jogging trails, America's first triple loop BMX competition track, and a 27-hole golf course under construction--all as part of the first phase of development; and,

WHEREAS, The June 8 grand opening of the first phase of Hart Ranch's grand design heralds a successful beginning to a long and solid commitment to South Dakota's tourism industry; and,

WHEREAS, The Duinick Companies from Prinsburg, Minnesota, are creating a vacation destination that will allow families manifold opportunities to experience together plenty of good old-fashioned fun in one of the most picturesque and unspoiled areas in all America:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, June 8, 1984, as in South Dakota, and I personally salute the farsighted entrepreneurs who are changing Hart Ranch's dreams into a very enjoyable reality for us South Dakotans and our visiting friends.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four
